I. Introductory Note

We received the following questions from Participants. We have answered the same below.

II. Answers to Individual Clarification Questions

1. Do we have to argue on the matter of genocide or it is a settled claim?

Ans. Teams are free to argue on the genocide point. Both the state parties do not per se deny the existence of a genocide. Everything else is clear from the problem.

2. If we have to argue on this matter, then please clarify the stance of general Jupiter on this matter.

Ans. Same as the view held by Blue Water.

3. Is it necessary to have an issue of jurisdiction?

Ans. Yes, strongly advisable.

4. Regarding the geographical boundaries of the purple valley.

Ans. Not directly relevant to the problem. One of the 6 Federal Units within Blue Water. Everything else to the extent as mentioned in the problem.

5. Any other point that you would like to mention, any information that you would like to give us.

Ans. Nothing specific.

6. On page 12 para 1 (4th line). The line reads- within 48 hours, 105 countries recognized blue water as an independent nation; so herein instead of blue water shouldn't there be purple valley?

Ans. Yes, this should be read as “Purple Valley”.

7. In the last 4th and 3rd line of the 10th paragraph in the moot problem, purple valley should be written in place of blue water.

Ans. In the last 4th line of the 10th para, “Blue Water” should be read as “Purple Valley”.

8. In the moot proposition page 12 para 10 line 4 it is stated “within 48 hours, 105 countries recognized blue water as an independent nation”, is the underlined blue water or purple valley.

Ans. This should be read as “Purple Valley”.
